

Providence Animal Center (PAC) seeks an experienced professional to join the senior leadership team as the next Senior Director of Major Gifts and Planned Giving.

PAC is a private free-standing 501(c)3 animal welfare organization located on a seven-acre property in Media, PA just off the Blue Route that offers affordable and life-affirming rescue, adoption, medical care, and training of companion animals and serves as a community resource that inspires others to embrace the human-animal bond.

PAC has an operating budget of over $5M and approximately 85 full and part-time staff. Reporting to the Executive Director the Senior Director of Major Gifts and Planning will lead a team of three full-time staff, and one part-time. Working closely as a peer to the Director of Advancement and PR the combined team is responsible for generating $2.5M in revenue.

PAC is an equal opportunity employer.

Minimum Qualifications:

The successful candidate will be passionate about the animal welfare mission and must have at least ten years of development experience with a strong track record of success. Management experience is required. Strong written and verbal communication skills are required. Bachelor's degree required; graduate degree preferred. Strong commitment to the mission of PAC. Modest travel is expected.

Days/Hours: Monday – Friday, 9 am to 5:30 pm. Evening and weekends as needed

Salary: Commensurate with experience

Benefits:

- 401(k)
- Health Insurance
- Dental Insurance
- Employer Paid Short Term Disability
- Paid Time Off
- Discount veterinary care for your dog/cat
- Free Parking

Company's website:

www.providenceac.org

Company's Facebook page:

<https://www.facebook.com/search/top?q=providence%20animal%20center>

Providence Animal Center offers life-affirming rescue, medical care, treatment, protection, and placement of companion animals that forever uphold the critical importance of the human-animal bond.

Providence Animal Center is an equal-opportunity employer.

For more information:
Jennifer Villalobos
jvillalobos@providenceac.org