2022

Sponsorship Opportunities

The Planned Giving Council of Greater Philadelphia (PGCGP) offers many options designed to fit your outreach needs and budget.

About Us

The Planned Giving Council of Greater Philadelphia is our region's leading professional association for individuals involved in charitable gift planning. Our members represent a broad spectrum of educational institutions, as well as charitable organizations that engage in health and human services, arts, culture, and the environment.

Our membership also includes representatives from financial institutions and organizations that provide services in finance and estate planning.

As an affiliate of the National Association of Charitable Gift Planners, our mission is to increase the quality and quantity of charitable planned gifts by serving as the premier professional resource for the gift planning community.

Prospective Audience

The PGCGP has almost two hundred members from the Philadelphia, New Jersey, and Delaware metro region, including members from many of the region's largest not-for-profit organizations and universities. Our programs also attract those new to planned giving, generalists whose duties include planned giving, major gift officers and allied professionals such as philanthropic advisors, estate attorneys, certified public accountants, and financial advisors.

Sponsorship Avenues

In 2022, we continue to update our sponsorship opportunities to better reflect our organizational needs. We plan to host our premier educational program – the Planned Giving Day Conference – in-person at the Union League of Philadelphia on Wednesday, October 12, 2022. Please visit pgcgp.org to view a list of our 2022 sponsorship opportunities.

Educational Programs: PGCGP educational programs are usually scheduled between 11:00am to 2:00pm and include an expert speaker on topics related to planned giving and philanthropy. In 2022, PGCGP will be offering a blend of hybrid and in-person educational programs.

Planned Giving Day Conference: We plan to host our annual premier educational conference in-person event on Wednesday, October 12, 2022, with interactive and engaging break-out education sessions – and some not offered anywhere else. Attendees at the Union League typically number two hundred and include members and non-members from the Philadelphia metropolitan area as well as individuals from neighboring states. In 2021, the in-person conference attracted attendees and vendors regionally and nationally.

Planned Giving Course: In late 2022, the PGCGP will be offering a preview program for a Planned Giving Course scheduled for April of 2023.

Quarterly Newsletter and Communicating with our Members: We communicate with our members and colleagues in many ways including the PGCGP Newsletter as well as via Eblast and LinkedIn postings. Regular Eblasts are sent to our membership database, as well as hundreds of others who requested to be included in our distribution list. LinkedIn postings are seen by those who are linked with PGCGP and who follow us on the platform.

Website: Our website is visited by hundreds weekly. Members access the site for information about and registration for upcoming programs, to download handouts from previous programs, and sponsor-driven Whitepapers. Members also frequently access the job opportunities and newsletter page.

Sponsor Benefits

Every sponsor will receive these benefits and recognition opportunities:

- ✓ The opportunity to submit topic/speaker suggestions
- ✓ Opportunity to include links to Whitepapers and Articles in our newsletter, on the PGCGP website and Eblast
- ✓ Receive advance notice of program speakers and attendees
- ✓ Your logo on the website's Sponsor page as well as materials

Other Sponsorship Opportunities

Scholarship Sponsors:

Consider sponsoring a PGCGP scholarship for $500 to cover the cost of a member's national (NACGP) membership, local PGCGP membership, PG Day, and other membership benefits. Award eligibility is prioritized for furloughed or unemployed colleagues, and then those whose nonprofit budgets do not cover professional development opportunities.

2022 Planned Giving Day

The PGCGP will host our annual 2022 Planned Giving Day Conference on Wednesday, October 12, 2022, at the Union League of Philadelphia. This all-day conference will feature two keynote speakers and four educational tracks for all levels of experience. The conference usually attracts over 150 planned giving professionals.

The timing of our conference is earlier this year because the National Association of Charitable Gift Planners has scheduled its national conference during the last week in October 2022. This year's theme is "Reflecting on Tomorrow."
